CABES
Capacity Development for Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services Experts in Africa

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION

This certificate is presented to

kashuba Gloire KASHUBA

for having successfully participated in the course:

Train the Trainers - Developing, organising and teaching online courses on different topics

Course date: 21-22 April 2026 (16 hours)

The following topics were covered in the course:

- Introduction to the CABES Capacity Development Programme CCDP – for professionals.
- Specific requirements, benefits and challenges of online teaching.
- Moodle-based Learning Management Systems – Administration and tools.
- Development of a syllabus and lecturing script.
- Innovative teaching methods for participant motivation and evaluation in online settings.

The course was organised by the Capacity Development for Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services Experts in West Central and East Africa (CABES) project as part of its CABES Capacity Development Programme – CCDP for professionals. CABES aims to develop and strengthen the capacity of professionals in biodiversity-related fields in West, Central, and East Africa to engage in the Intergovernmental Science-Policy Platform on Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services.

CABES is a consortium of partners across Africa and Europe, including the Center for Development Research (ZEF), African Center of Excellence on Climate Change Biodiversity and Sustainable Agriculture (CEA CCBAD), Faculty of Agronomic Science of the University of Lubumbashi (FSA UNILU), Horn of Africa Regional Environment Center and Network (HoA-REC&N), West African Science Service Center on climate change and Adapted Land Use (WASCAL), UNEP World Conservation Monitoring Center (UNEP WCMC) and CoKnow Consulting.

J. Hauck

Dr. Jennifer Hauck, Senior Programme Officer, CABES project

Supported by:
Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation, Nuclear Safety and Consumer Protection
based on a decision of the German Bundestag

IKI INTERNATIONAL CLIMATE INITIATIVE

In support of the IPBES Work Programme